

Youth Vibe honors editor of On Common Ground News

Valerie J. Morgan, co-publisher and editor of On Common Ground News, was honored by Youth Vibe Inc. at its 11th Annual Awards Banquet, which was held in November. The organization, headed by Waleed Shamsid-Deen, founder and executive director, provides mentoring and business training to more than 600 youths annually.

Morgan was recognized with the organization's "Significant Supporter Award" for work with community's youths. On Common Ground News offers training, internships and shadowing opportunities for high school and college students who are interested in journalism.
